WIN

THRILLING DESCRIPTION OF RUSSIANS' LAST RETREAT.

WERE OUT-NUMBERED

Russians Retired Doggedly, not Beaten, but Outnumbered.—Cannonading Heard Off Japan, and it is Believed the Two Fleets Have Met.

Liao Yang, June 17.—A correspondent of the Associated Press who was present at the battle of Vafangow describes the fighting as follows: "Throughout the three days of combat the officers and men vied with each other in pluck and heroism. They have added glorious passages to Russian military history. The enemy's advance originally included the fifth, eighth and eleventh divisions, twelve squadrons of cavalry and splendid artillery. About two hundred guns were belching a continuous stream of shot and shell. Large reinforcements enabled the Japanese to turn the Russian flanks. I made my way about eleven o'clock to the Russian right flank and climbed a hill where I could see the whole field of battle. The heights of the Foochow railroad bridge and surrounding hills were occupied by the Japanese infantry. Then black lines of infantry like threads could be seen creeping through the verdure. Nearer the slope was dotted with Russian riflemen. A brownish smoke overhung some of the batteries and others showed flashes of flame. The crackle of the rifle fire was punctuated by the roar of big guns. The scene was awe inspiring. Suddenly a company of Cosacks appeared on the crest of a hill and began to descend. They were followed by infantry. The Japanese gunners promptly pursued them with shrapnel. Horses and men began falling. A moment later a couple of thousand Russians jumped from a train just arrived and with fixed bayonets plunged into the battle. Again the crackle of musketry and the Russians began to retire towards the railroad. Train after train left the depot. I descended the hill and managed to jump on the last car. The main force shortly afterward began slowly to retreat towards Vantsialin, thirty miles north of Vafangow, and about one o'clock in the afternoon had accomplished its strategic mission. The battle had deflected considerable of the Japanese force from Port Arthur. Many Russians have fallen, but a greater number of Japanese were killed. The Russians say the Japanese cannot advance much farther north, even when they recover from the effects of the battle of Vafangow."

Liao Yang (Thursday) June 16.—During the night of June 14th the Russian forces under General Stakelberg which had been engaged with the Japanese for two days, slept in their position four miles south of Vafangow, and on the morning of June 15th assumed the offensive and attacked the Japanese lines. The battle lasted all day and resulted in a heavy loss to the Japanese. Heavy Japanese reinforcements were brought up rapidly from the south, arriving in time to turn the scale. The entire division of fresh Japanese troops was thrown into line against the already tired Russians and an immense superiority in numbers enabled them to overlap the left flank of the Russians who had not sufficient men to meet the turning movement and were forced to withdraw. The Russians retired doggedly, not beaten but outnumbered.

London, June 17.—The Japanese legation has received a dispatch from Tokio announcing that the Russian Vladivostok squadron was sighted yesterday off Oki island.

Tokio, June 17.—A report has been received from the police station at Saga saying the sounds of cannonading have been heard off the coast. It is considered possible that the Japanese fleet has met the Russian fleet. The steamer Ise has arrived at Kura carrying more of the crew and troops from the transport Sado. The Sado is safe and is being towed into port by the Higo.

BADLY SCALDED.

Harry Hamilton Meets With an Accident at the Ice Plant.
Harry W. Hamilton accidentally stepped into some boiling water at the ice plant this morning, and one of his legs was scalded to the knee. The injury is not dangerous.

Mission Workers at Winona.
Winona Lake, Ind., June 17.—The first Western Conference of the young peoples' missionary movement of the United Society of Free Baptist Young People opened here to-day and will continue for one week. The movement was organized at a conference of leaders in missionary work in Sunday schools and young people's societies held at Silver Bay on Lake George in 1902. The purpose of the conference is to afford a practical training school for missionary workers in Sunday schools and young people's societies and to combine with such training the facilities for rest and recreation that most christian workers are obliged to seek in connection with their brief vacations.

Forbes vs. Neil.

Chicago, Ill., June 17.—Chicagoans who take an interest in things pugilistic are on the qui vive to-day in anticipation of the witnessing the first championship battle that has been fought in this city in a number of years. The bout is for the bantam weight title and is to take place to-night at the Waverly Athletic club. The contestants will be Frankie Neil the present champion, and Harry Forbes, from whom Neil won his championship title. Both men have trained faithfully and appear to be in the pink of condition for the go. Under the articles of agreement they will weigh in at the ring side at 120lb.

Revolutionary Hero Honored.

Roxbury, Mass., June 17.—A statue of Gen. Joseph Warren of Revolutionary fame, was unveiled in his native town of Roxbury to-day. The event was accompanied with interesting ceremonies in which Governor Bates, Mayor Collins of Boston and other men of note took part. A large parade of military and civic bodies preceded the ceremonies. The statue was modeled in Paris by Paul W. Bartlett and cast in New York. It represents General Warren wearing the three cornered hat and the long-skirted overcoat of the period. He carries a small sword in his scabbard in his left hand, the idea being to emphasize the citizen rather than the soldier. The figure stands in an easy but commanding pose on the centre of a semicircular exedra. On the back of the bench is a bronze relief showing General Warren's death during the combat between raw levies of Americans near Boston and the British regulars.

Woman's Club.

A special meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Andrew's Hall. At this meeting the committees for the year will be appointed, and the work of the year determined. Every member of the Club is earnestly urged to be present at this meeting.

MORE

BODIES

STILL RECOVERING THE DEAD FROM THE BURNED STEAMER.

FROM 900 TO 1,000

So the Total Loss of Life is Estimated.—The Number of Dead 532, and Between 400 and 500 are Still Missing.

New York, June 17.—Forty-eight hours after the burning of the steamer General Slocum, the exact number of victims is still unknown. Up to the present time the total number of bodies recovered is 532. With no more arrivals at the morgue for several hours the hope began to be felt that the awful total had been completed, but the hope was soon shattered by the report that the divers at work at the hulk of the Slocum had discovered a mass of bodies wedged in one of the paddle boxes. How many bodies there were in the mass will not be known for several hours, as they will not be disturbed until the coroner is on the scene.

One hopeful phase of the situation is the steady decrease in the number of missing, though it is still alarmingly large, the number being between four and five hundred. The various officers whose positions bring them into touch with the disaster still adhere to the belief that when all is told it will be found that between nine hundred and one thousand persons perished.

Dies in Electric Chair.

Columbus, O., June 17.—Michael G. Schiller was executed by electricity in the penitentiary annex today. Schiller's crime for which he paid the death penalty was the murder of his wife at Youngstown two years ago.

Boston Remembers Bunker Hill.

Boston, Mass., June 17.—The 129th anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill is being celebrated with parades, reunions of patriotic societies and other festivities that will not end before midnight. Bunker Hill day is the Massachusetts Fourth of July and with each recurring year more and more "fuss" is made over the anniversary. All public buildings were decorated to-day and a large majority of the hotels and business houses. The feature of the forenoon program was the customary carnival procession in Charlestown. This afternoon the usual civil and military parade was held.

Iowa Day at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 17.—This was Iowa day in the calendar of the fair and it proved one of the "biggest" days of the exposition to date. Governor Cummins and his staff were present together with numerous other dignitaries and men of note in the Hawkeye State. A feature of the program was a parade of the distinguished visitors escorted by cadets and students from many of the leading colleges and academies of Iowa. At the formal exercises held in Festival Hall the chief oration was delivered by Senator Thomas D. Healey of Fort Dodge.

Charities and Correction.

Portland, Me., June 17.—The National Conference of Charities and Correction held a general session and several section meetings to-day. Each meeting was largely attended and the subjects for discussion proved of great interest to the delegates. Among the speakers were some of the most prominent delegates to the convention, and the reforms they advocated and the experiences they related proved of great interest.

At the general session a report was presented by Prof. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago on "Workmen's Insurance." Another subject discussed from various viewpoints was the recent progress in the treatment of defectives.

Neely families in their homes, industrial agencies, and criminals were the chief topics of discussion this afternoon. At the general session arranged for to-night the prominent participants are to include Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago, and Professor Graham Taylor, also of Chicago. Mrs. Valdimir Simkhovitch will tell of the recreational uses of the public schools in New York City.

Change in Light House Board.

Washington, D. C., June 17.—Rear Admiral J. J. Read, chairman of the Lighthouse Board, was placed on the retired list today, having reached the age limit for active services. He is succeeded as chairman of the Lighthouse Board by Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, recently relieved of the command of the Asiatic station.

ROUGH RIDERS.

Will Compete in a Relay Race to the World's Fair.

Albuquerque, N. M.—F. H. Leland, a veteran cavalryman, and a member of General Gomez's staff in Cuba before the Spanish-American war, with William Closson, a well known rough rider and broncho tamer of this section, are organizing a 1,200 mile relay race for cowboys, open to riders in New Mexico and Arizona, with the starting point in Albuquerque and the finish at the gates of the World's Fair grounds in St. Louis.

Details of the contest have not yet been completed, but it has been decided to have relays at short distances so as to obviate any charge of cruelty to animals.

The purse will be $1,500 and will be offered by New Mexico stockmen. There are already six entries in the contest and it is probable that the start will be made during the first week in July. The distance from Albuquerque to St. Louis by rail over the shortest route is 1,180 miles.

Topeka, Kan., June 17.—In the district court today Judge Hazen dissolved the temporary injunction against the Santa Fe machinists which was secured by the railroad company May 9th. ## TRAIN

ROBBERS

HELD UP NORTHERN PACIFIC PASSENGER LAST NIGHT.

DYNAMITED SAFE

Robbers Secure the Contents and Escape.—A Posse With Bloodhounds Has Taken Up the Trail.—Four Men in it.

Bear Mouth, Mont., June 17.—At eleven o'clock last night two masked men held up the North Coast Limited Northern Pacific passenger train east bound a mile and a half east of this station. After stopping the train the robbers dynamited the express car, blew open the safe and escaped with its contents. The amount secured is not known, but it is believed to be large. The brakeman on the rear of the train when he realized that the train was being held up slipped off the car and ran back to Bear Mouth where he notified the superintendent of the road and the sheriff's office at Missoula. A posse was summoned and reached the scene at two o'clock. Bloodhounds will arrive to-day. It is believed there were four men in the hold-up, although the engineer and crew declare they saw only two men.

St. Paul, Minn., June 17.—The officials of the Northern Pacific confirm the story of the hold-up of a train near Bear Mouth, Montana, but claim that nothing of great value was obtained from the safe.

DELIGHTFUL RECEPTION.

Col. and Mrs. Willson and Major Martini-Mancini Entertain.

Col. and Mrs. Willson and Major Martini-Mancini delightfully entertained a number of their friends last evening in the gymnasium of the Military Institute. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. Dancing was the amusement, the music being furnished by Steinhart's orchestra. Believed that One of Perpetrators of Dynamite Outrage is in Jail.

Denver, Colo., June 17.—Governor Peabody and Adjutant General Bell were this morning served with the writ of habeas corpus issued by Judge Thayer at St. Louis for the production of Charles H. Moyer in the U. S. Circuit Court July 5th. There is a stipulation in the writ which waives the actual appearance of Moyer if found inconvenient to produce him and that provides for arguments in the case to proceed without Moyer being present.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 17.—Under Sheriff Parsons is authority for the statement that there is confined in the county jail one of the perpetrators of the Independence dynamite outrage. Parsons also stated that there are five other men not yet under arrest who are implicated directly or indirectly in the outrage.
